

INAUGURAL EVE DINNER

Edward T. Foote II University Green

Thursday, January 28, 2016

Held in a regal, ballroom-sized tent on the Foote Green, the evening's festivities honored President Frenk. Themed "Celebrating the Best of Miami," the event included fine cuisine, testimonials from family and friends of the president, and musical performances by students and special guests.

INAUGURAL EVE DINNER

DINNER

Friday, January 29, 2016

Cane Talks marked the launch of a new tradition at UM, with ten-minute presentations by leading thinkers in the UM community illuminating big questions we face in the next century. Eight faculty scholars, along with a distinguished alumna and an accomplished student, explored major global challenges. View the talks at cane talks.miami.edu.

The event was sponsored by the Eric T. Levin family and the Citizens Board.

INAUGURATION CORPORATE WATCH PARTIES

Friday, January 29, 2016

Several major businesses with a large number of University of Miami alumni employees hosted corporate gatherings to watch the live video stream of the installation of President Frenk.

President Frenk's Favorite Quote:

"It really boils down to this: that all life is interrelated. We are all caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied into a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly."

— Martin Luther King, Jr. "A Christmas Sermon on Peace" in 1967
