

Launch Your Career in Educational Advancement

Apply for a Residency in the CASE Graduate Trainee Program

The CASE Graduate Trainee Program U.S./Canada attracts a diverse pool of candidates for entry-level fundraising positions. It's a great way to begin a career or make a career change with support from the leading association for educational advancement professionals.

For more information
case.org/gtp

Length

July 2025–June 2026

Compensation and Benefits

Entry-level salary determined by host

Professional Development

Graduate Trainees receive an entire year of professional development through CASE that includes attending our signature Summer Institute for Educational Fundraising for new professionals and one additional in-person conference; global online meetings with CASE President and CEO and graduate trainees from around the world; monthly e-Learning; an assigned mentor; and access to CASE online resources.

Qualifications

- An interest in entering education fundraising
- Bachelor's degree earned before July 2025
- Eligible to work in the United States or Canada without sponsorship

Apply by January 13, 2025.

Contact Thais Andrade at tandrade@case.org

92%

The percentage of graduates that transition into permanent fundraising positions after completing the program

Hear From Former CASE Graduate Trainees

"I am grateful for my transformative experiences within this program and know that it plays such a large part in my success today."

—Michael N. Weaver Jr., Associate Director of Donor and External Relations, University of Texas at Austin (2022-23 CASE Graduate Trainee)

"I have been given the opportunity to learn from some amazingly talented folks thanks to CASE and its community; it is a fantastic program that really exposes you to the ins and outs of advancement."

—Ariel Dressen, Associate Director of Philanthropy at Ohio University Heritage College of Osteopathic Medicine (2021-22 CASE Graduate Trainee)

"The CASE Graduate Trainee Program gave me the confidence to pursue my interest in development and learn every facet of the advancement operation with a community of like-minded individuals."

—Zachary J. Price, Development Officer, Thayer School of Engineering at Dartmouth College (2017-18 CASE Graduate Trainee)

The Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) is a global nonprofit association of more than 3,700 institutions. CASE is dedicated to advancement professionals—in alumni relations, communications, development, marketing, and fundraising—who share the goal of championing education to transform lives and society.